

Fourth National Conference On Track Early Bird Registration Closes 20th September 2014

The Fourth National Conference on the Pastoral Care of Migrant and Refugees: Towards a Better World will take place from 1-3 October 2014 at the Australian Catholic University, North Sydney. The conference will coincide with the 100th Anniversary of the Catholic Migrant and Refugee Week and pay tribute to this vulnerable population.

The national conference is set to be both engaging and enriching. Over 35 high-level speakers will present, giving up-to-date information on critical debates on migration, at a national and international level.

The most recent speakers added to the line-up include;

Maria Tiimon Chi Fang – Pacific Calling Partnership – Edmund Rice Centre

Jennifer Burn – Director of Anti-Slavery Australia and an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law at the University of Technology, Sydney

Jamal Rifi – Medical Doctor and Cultural Activist

Professor Sharon Pickering – Professor of Criminology and Australian Research Council Future Fellow on Border Policing at Monash University

Early bird registration closes tomorrow, Saturday 20th September 2014 at 5pm. To register for the conference please click on the following link.
